

Episode 10 Show Notes

Title: Women in Science: The Young Investigators on the Front Lines in the Fight Against Lung Cancer

Date: December 2020

Brief description: Women in science face many challenges. Hollywood producer Marta Kauffman – the co-creator behind hit shows Friends and Grace and Frankie, and an LCFA board member – hosts an intimate conversation with the driving forces behind LCFA's mission: a group of young women scientists on the front lines of the fight against lung cancer. Learn more about their studies and how they can push lung cancer research forward.
